"Spring, you beautiful season!" After a few months of snow and then a little rain the sun finally made its appearance. And with it came the beginning of the spring sports season at St. Michael's. In the short time that we have been back from Easter, six different sports have been played at various times, ranging from La Cross to Soccer. Of course the old standby and most popular is baseball or softball.

Ed Markey had his boys out early this year in order to loosen up some pretty stiff arms. The team has less than three weeks to prepare for opening day April 28 at Dartmouth.

The baseball Purple Knights were hard hit by graduation and the fact that Warren Tessier left school as did leading hitter Dick Smyrski doesn't help too much. Tessier signed with the Phillies and is now stationed at a Rookie camp in Florida. He says it's tough but feels he is doing OK. Joe Haley, Bill Gorham, and Pete Ruselowski graduated leaving a lot of room for some pretty capable sophomores.

The starting lineup as I see it against Dartmouth will have Bill Kelly, Joe Dudley, Denny McCarthy and Danny Mahoney in the infield with Bob O'Shea, Ralph St. Peter and John Zurlo in the outfield. Zurlo is a catcher but is doing well at the plate so far and should be in the lineup. Desroches figures to hold down the catching spot over southpaw hitter Dave Carmody.

The pitching is doubtful when you by pass number one mound man Pete Griffin. Dick Guilmette throws with a good fast side arm delivery and probably will see a lot of action.

Interclass action is rapidly coming down the wire with softball starting Monday and a Field Day scheduled for May 2. "Doc" Jacobs also announced the fact there will be a tennis tournament soon in which individuals instead of classes will compete for the top spot. If the winner is a Junior the JuniorClass gets the points. In that race for the Interclass Trophy the Seniors lead with the Juniors and Sophomores not far behind.

Spring is here and so is the sporting action that follows its arrival. The St. Michael's College campus, in the weeks to come, promises to resemble a camp or summer resort rather than an educational institution. Anyone for a game of tennis?

Dr. Livingstone?

What a happy man he would have been if his man Stanley could have brought along a carton of Coke! That cold crisp taste, that lively lift would certainly hit the spot with any tired explorer. In fact, after your next safari to class—wouldn't Coca-Cola taste good to you?

Knights Baseball Season Opens April 28 at Dartmouth

Softball Starts Monday

The Inter-Class Softball schedule was released today by Athletic Director "Doc" Jacobs and features an enlarged schedule with each team playing 9 games.

Last spring the freshmen surprised everyone by winning 5 out of their 6 games, thereby capturing the title. However, the same boys who won that title are now playing baseball for Ed Markey. Therefore anyone's guess for a winner is good.

GAMES

The games will be played on the two fields opposite Austin Hall. One is close to Ryan Hall and will be designated as field "B". Field "A" is located out by the main road to Essex and is definitely the better of the two.

Each team will be issued the new equipment and schedules will be posted around campus. The schedule is as follows:

The Purple Knights baseball team has been practicing for the past two weeks, preparing, under coach Ed Markey for the opening day game at Dartmouth, April 28.

Markey has had the squad hustling despite the poor weather - or maybe because of it. The team finally got to work on the regular diamond after several sessions on the playing field.

The opening day lineup on April 28 will contain many new faces as many of last years' stars have graduated or left school. Coach Ed Markey will miss the strong bat and pitching arm of "Lefty" Tessier who is currently in the Phillies chain in Florida.

GRIFFIN BACK

Returning from the 1958 squad that finished with a 6-3 mark including a win over Vermont, is Pete Griffin, a Junior who will bear most of the pitching duties during this campaign. Griffin had a 3-1 slate last season.

The infield will be without Joe Haley and Dick Smysky this year but will have Joe Dudley at short and Junior Bill Kelly at third. Denny McCarthy looks like the best bet for second, with Danny Mahoney at first base.

OUTFIELD

The only returnee in the outfield is Ralph St. Peter who led the team in homers last year. Sophomores who will be trying for the starting lineup are center fielder Bob O'Shea, Camilo Brenes and Bernie Couture. O'Shea hits from the left side of the plate with good power and has one of the finest rifle arms to come along.

The other half of the batting has Jim Desroches returning from last year. Desroches is a Senior and handles a pitcher well from behind the plate. John Zurlo who is also a catcher has been belting the ball with power and consistency and may find himself at first or shagging flies in the outfield come April 28.

Dave O'Mara Obtains Air Science Award

The rifle team, having completed its matches for the year, has ended competition for the professor of Air Science Award.

David O'Mara, who gained first place through constant effort and practice, had a total that was 26.7 points higher than the man in second place.

He will receive the D.A.S. Award at the final Review held during Parents Weekend, May 2nd and 3rd. O'Mara will also have his name inscribed on the trophy in Colonel Bondurant's office.

TOTALS

The final totals, announced by M/Sgt. Lucas, ROTC Rifle team coach, are as follows: O'Mara-1772.9; Leahy-1746.2; Anctil-1738.4; Derenzo-1706.9; Gervais-1673.2; Tarnowski-1633.4; Fluet-1620; and Dickinson-1582.8.

This final total was arrived at by taking the average of each candidate and adding it to the scores received in the following matches; William R. Hearst; 1st Army Area Secretary of the Air Force; and National ROTC.

CROWN & SWORD ADMITS FIFTEEN NEW MEMBERS

By ROBERT CORNELL

The Crown and Sword Society of St. Michael's College has chosen the 15 new members, who will replace the men the Society will lose via graduation.

The new members who have been accepted into the honor society are: Edward Anibal, Kevin Bergen, Frederick Burkle, Joseph Coppola, Carl DeNisio, Edward Hatch, Richard Hickey, John Klag, Hugh McColl, Charles Messenger, John Naughter, Robert Pellegrine, Roger Plasse, Edward Rickard, and Robert Simpson.

In order to qualify, the new members had to submit a letter to the nomination committee stating why they wished to become members of the Society and also include a personal evaluation of themselves. In the letters the new members submitted giving a summary of their activities while at St. Michael's, each man had to have at least a "C" average in order to qualify.

ANALYSIS

These letters in turn were submitted to five "two-man" teams for further analysis. Each applicant was then interviewed by two of these teams at different times. This process brought the applicant into contact with four of the members of the selection committee.

Following this, the five "two-man" teams along with the committee chairman met to discuss the qualifications of all applicants, and to narrow the field of eligibility to twenty-five men.

A further meeting involving the entire society of 30 members was held on Wednesday, April 22, to evaluate the twenty-five men eligible for membership. Anything, for or against a prospective member was discussed prior to voting by the Society. The 15 men that received the greatest number

BUILDING PLANS BEGIN AT SMC

By ROBERT E. PELLEGRINE

Saint Michael's College is now in the process of dismantling Saint Leo's Hall, the first of the wooden war surplus dormitories that was acquired from the neighboring Air Force Base, Fort Ethan Allen, in order to meet the housing need caused by the increase of enrollment of GI's after the close of World War II.

The demolition of Saint Leo's Hall is being accomplished in order to make way for the construction of a new four story Georgian Colonial dormitory, similar to the two already existing brick dorms. The new dormitory will be capable of housing approximately 215 students and will accommodate two proctors.

The 35 Freshmen students who have been living in Saint Leo's since the beginning of the scholastic year, have now been reassigned to rooms in various dormitories on campus.

Early Wednesday morning when the first move was made and the students began marching out with all of their belongings, the college maintenance crew, under the direction of Clarence Davidson, immediately began work by pulling out the windows.

CONTRACTS

The firm of Sewell and Smith, from Farmington, Massachusetts, has been awarded the $459,200 contract for the general contract and electrical work on the dorm, because of their bid being the lowest of any reviewed.

BULLETIN

Report all final exam conflicts to the Assistant Dean and Registrar by Friday noon, May 1.

Co-chairmen James F. McGuirk and Hugh F. McColl are shown talking over plans for May Day activities with their moderator, Rev. Father Lacharite, Treasurer of St. Michael's College. In the background is the Shrine of Our Lady of Fatima, a gift of the Class of 1950.

MICHAELMEN TO PRAY EN MASSE

Friday, May 1, the student May Day Committee has organized a plan for the men of St. Michael's to dedicate the month of May to the Mother of God. Students are urged to attend Mass and Communion, and participate in a Procession, Benediction, and Living Rosary starting at 6:30 P.M., at Austin Hall.

The units of the first division participating will march five abreast in their order of classes of Freshmen, Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors who are not in clubs represented. Those campus organizations next in line are: Biology Club, Chemistry Club, Crown and Sword Society, Debate Team, Foreign Institute Students, Outing Club, Politics Club, Radio Club, ROTC Color Guard and Band, Glee Club, and the Living Rosary.

The second division will be composed of the lay faculty members and their families, the Sisters of Saint Martha, the Edmundite Religious Community, the Officials, and the automobile that will carry the Blessed Sacrament.

PROCESSION

After assembling in front of Austin Hall, the Procession will proceed due south where the Blessed Sacrament will join them at College Hall, continuing around the western end of the building to the highway, then due east to the driveway and again due south to the shrine of Our Lady of Fatima.

CEREMONY

The ceremony at the Shrine will include Benediction celebrated by the Very Reverend Gerald E. Dupont, S.S.E., President of the College, Deacon will be the Reverend Father Henry E. Nadeau, S.S.E.

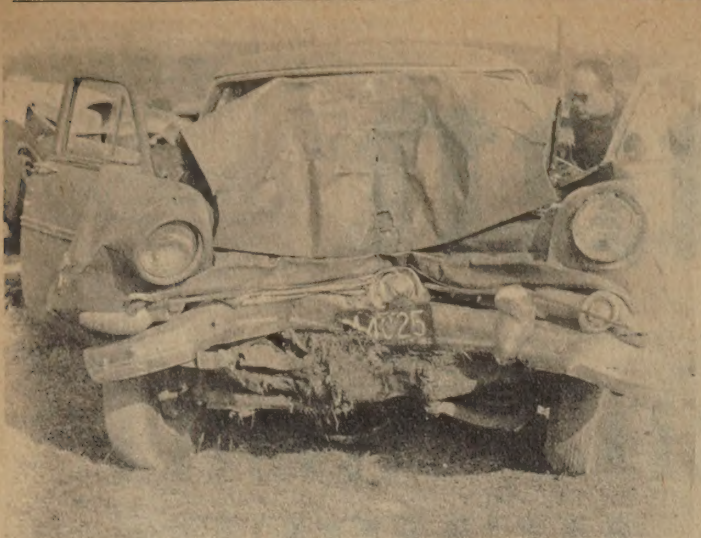

The Living Rosary will be recited before the Blessed Sacrament by the Seniors.

In case of high winds there will be no Benediction, but there will be the Rosary and a Crowning of Our Lady of Fatima at the Shrine. Rain will put the Rosary and Crowning in Austin Hall. It is necessary for the men present at the Benediction to remain in their places until the Blessed Sacrament is safely in an automobile and on its way back to the College Chapel.

Monday night at 7:00 P.M., on WSSE, the two co-chairmen of the May Day Committee will be interviewed on the Frank Lyons Show

A Tragic Lesson

My heart is full of whirling;
the fear of death stands over me,
trembling and terrified,
I watch the darkness close about me.

Psalm 54

As members of a society that is known for its reason and judgement, we should stop for a moment and look at a very unfortunate and sorrowful incident.

This is a tragic lesson that each and every one of us should bring ourselves to face. This type of incident occurs daily, as we are made well aware of by statistics and the daily newspaper. But it does not seem to strike fear in our hearts until it happens to one who is close to us. We must not let this lesson fade out of our minds, as so many things do with the passage of time. Our duty is more than prayer.

The Broken Fungo

By VIN FARRELL

The AAA, and a fugue to you. Well now that my irracibles have been released, I can continue with this week's vignette. After reading last week's MICHAELMAN, I see that there is a move afoot to provide pecunia for all the weekends. A sawbuck a head will insure that each dance around the Maypole will be able to show a healthy hue of schwarze in the ledger. I think the idea is laudatory but for the fact that there is a strong urge (or at least to some enterprising impresario) after collecting the Hamiltons, to produce a three day session of Dean Slack and his Teenage panel spinning 72 hours of Paul Anka While I am on the subject of weekends, I must say that the Class of '60 put St. Michael's in anticipation. If their preview is representative of the Roaring Twenties should be a Bull market of an extravaganza. Emma says that the girls will help grind the mash for the still. Certainly if prizes could be given for the prettiest chest on campus "Texas" Tateronis would be my choice, I plan to be there with Al Corey.

There is not much else to say. I will be in Ottawa this weekend. It seems that Nelson Eddy made off with the last red Mounty's blouse and now when Regina Liz comes to turn the spigot, Philip won't be able to be invested into the Dew-line Cowboys. So you see to keep peace in the realm, I must do a bit of work.

The baseball seasons begin next week. They start off with Dartmouth and then play the Tigers for a breather. It should be a good season. The third game is a double header: Norwich in the morning, "comps" in the afternoon Must run now before the prices change at the State.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Mr. O'Grady:

Please accept my compliments on your "strictly speaking" column dealing with the locus of sovereignty. The important thing to realize, or so it seems to me, is that the one place sovereignty does not lie in the United States is in the United States Government. As you brought out, the Federal government certainly exercises certain sovereign powers, such as those dealing with citizenship, naturalization, the coining of money, and the making of treaties, but each of these powers is merely a delegated power, subject to rescission by action of the States.

However, I think it important also to understand the limited nature of the sovereignty that lies within any particular State, considered by itself alone. If the right to secede existed, and could be exercised by a State at its will, there would be no question of its fully sovereign status. But while a good many constitutional scholars agree that, in theory, the right exists, there is no question that it cannot now be exercised freely, so as a practical matter the sovereignty of each individual State is somewhat limited, and lies in a common storehouse with the sovereignty of each of the other States.

One thing that might help clarify these matters would be an amendment to the Constitution that would permit any State -- or perhaps any State, seconded by another State -- to initiate proposed amendments to the Constitution. The system contemplated in Article V simply has not worked out in practice, with the result that it now is theoretically possible for members of Congress from only five States to block even the submission of a proposed amendment to the Constitution that might be desired by the other forty-four States.

I hadn't intended to ramble on at such lengths. I'm delighted to see you thinking about these things.

Cordially yours,
James K. Kilpatrick

What is your opinion of the proposed student social fee?

by GENE REAGAN

Arthur Kohler, Class of '62, Waltham, Mass.

I think the proposed student social fee would be an anti-septic for the financial germ that has plagued social weekends here at St. Michael's. Seems to me it is much easier to pay an extra $10 at the beginning of the first semester, when most students are "financially stable," than to pay $12.50 for a Junior Weekend ticket, when money is as scarce as sunshine in Ver-

Strictly Speaking

by P. Terrence O'Grady

This was no Brahmin library where the ideas refused to rise above Boston's ghetto walls. This was no Victorian, intellectually and socially respectable gathering ridden by convention and traditional form. No, this was the Bohemian Pfaff's restaurant. The home of literary rebels, romantics, dabblers in transcendental mysticism, democrats, homosexuals, catholics and pagans. And Walter Whitman was all of these and more. He was our great and good grey poet.

Adulterer, clam digger, runaway slave, drunkard, lunatic, prostitute, congressman, half-breed, the President and all his cabinet, "and of these one and all I weave the song of myself." Who me? No, thanks! I'm no sewer pipe open at both ends with a lost soul. I'm not one identity with that divine average. It's Walt, not me, common and cheap Walt aching with amorous love. That's too big an order for me. That democracy that he longs for is nice, but this was the Gilded Age, he was betrayed.

Neither am I the "Chanter of pains and joys, uniter of the here and hereafter." No, my soul is superior to my flesh. Why leave Emerson here? No, there's no Open Road for my soul. No trotting along indiscriminately sympathizing. Sure, "the road is before us"! But it's not safe.

You chronic optimist, Walt, you do reject. You reject the warning of that nasty Nathaniel and haughty Herman. And they knew better than did you about that road. Whatever that whale means, it's there.

Walt, you tell us we must merge, merge into amorous love, into one identity, into democracy and finally into fatality. But, Walter, if you reject nothing then there must be a chair, church and philosophy. Something must keep order, for really, not all of that is you.

But you don't scare me. I can escape. The only merger I'll make (besides maybe with that "always proceant urge of the word") is with the "Dark mother always gliding near with soft feet".

And then great good grey poet both of us shall know why "the sea pushes upon the land, with love, love, love."

Besides to die is different from what anyone supposed, and luckier.

Poli Sci Night Great Success

By FRANK J. R. LYONS

Tuesday, April 21, the Politics Club held its second annual political science night. The topic of discussion was "Careers in Government". The purpose of this meeting was to inform the students of possible career opportunities in the various fields of governmental employment, by bringing to them speakers on State, local, national and international government.

The speaker for local governmental employment opportunities was Mr. Corwin S. Elwell, Town Manager of Essex Junction, Vt.

He pointed out that one of the biggest drawing cards in work in local government was the wages obtained and the opportunities for advancement. "If the college graduate has enough initiative," said Mr. Elwell, "there is no limit to the financial benefits he can obtain."

Miss Lesley Bell, Assistant Personnel Director for the State of Vermont, spoke on the various types of employment that the college graduate could enter into in state government. "Right here in the State of Vermont," Miss Bell said, "there are very handsome opportunities for teachers, social workers, and doctors to mention only a few."

Mr. John W. Gaynor, District Director, Internal Revenue service, U.S. Treasury Department was the speaker for national government. Mr. Gaynor spoke of the opportunities for governmental employment under the Civil and Federal Reserve. "These jobs cover almost every field you can think of," said Mr. Gaynor, "the one drawback is that for most, if not all, some form of graduate study is needed."

The speaker on international government, was Mr. Paul Power associate professor of Political Science at St. Michael's. "Fields in international governmental employment are well paid for and interesting," said Mr. Power, Larry Eaton, a junior at St. Michael's College, died Sunday noon following an auto accident earlier in the morning. The accident, in which four of his classmates were injured came as a shock to all Michaelmen. A delegation from the Junior Class, bearing all Michaelmen's condolences to his family and friends, attended his funeral Wednesday in Troy, N.Y. A mass for the repose of his soul was celebrated in the College Chapel Wednesday morning. May his soul rest in peace.

Council Passes Weekend Plan

by James V. Canavan

By an overwhelming vote of 26-3 the Student Council approved a $10 "social fee" plan to re-vitalize the the financial status of SMC weekends at its most recent Tuesday meeting. Immediately the student governing body took steps to have the plan installed next year, offering it for student approval in the May general elections.

Paul Lennon, Social Weekend Committee Chairman, re-opened the week old debate of the plan by offering it for final acceptance. "Modifications suggested a week before have been made," reported Lennon in anticipation of quick approval.

Smooth sailing had not yet been gained, however, as Senior Albie Brault and Junior Dave Dowd offered strong objections. The latter contended St. Michael's just could not support three major social weekends while the former felt the Council was still liable to large losses under the plan.

Veteran Jim McGuirk brought forth the most poignant observation of the discussion, contending the plan might aid weekends in the future but would not solve Winter Carnival's problem for next year. McGuirk elaborated, pointing out the proposal required student body sanction before it could be taken to the Administration. Motions of the previous week only called for a sampling of student opinion at the May elections.

"If we only sample opinion we don't have approval," McGuirk continued, "and we haven't solved the problem for Winter Carnival next year as the plan wouldn't be put into effect."

From the ensuing flurry of debate, the contention that the plan might feasably be put in operation for next year emerged. To this cause the Council dedicated itself. A resounding vote of acceptance was followed immediately by a motion to have the measure offered as a referendum to the student body in the May elections.

A two-thirds majority of the student body must express approval of the plan for its acceptance. If such favor is gained and subsequent Administration ratification, the plan could possibly be in operation next year to solve the plight of Winter Carnival. If, however, the referendum is rejected, no alternate proposal has been offered and the status of Winter Carnival becomes dubious.

In other business, the Council made three financial allotments. A grant of $19.95 was delegated for the May Day ceremonies as well as $139 to purchase a phonograph to replace one stolen from Mr. Donoghue in a classroom. A $20 stipend was also allotted for Masses in memory of Junior Larry Eaton, who died tragically last weekend.

Fr. Coombs, Council Moderator, closed the meeting with an announcement that only one glass of milk per meal will be served in the dining hall until the milk pitchers, missing in quantity, are returned.

Student Body To Vote On Plan

The following solution to the problem of financing social weekends at St. Michael's is to be offered for student body approval in the general elections of May 1. The plan has been approved by the Student Council and is the only plan to receive such approval. As the original problem facing the Council was that of financing Winter Carnival, failure of this plan to meet student body approval will jeopardize the possibility of having a Winter Carnival next year.

PROPOSED SOLUTION

We propose that a social function fee of $10.00 be charged to each and every student enrolled in the normal academic year at St. Michael's College.

This money would total approximately $8000 for 800 students (this figure will vary according to enrollment). The money would be collected by the Treasurer's Office of St. Michael's College at the beginning of the first semester in September.

Each student in the freshmen and sophomore classes will be given $5.00 from this fee for the Military Weekend. This excludes Junior and Senior officers. ($5.00 to be applied to ticketpurchase).

The money would be apportioned in this manner:

|---|--------|
| (1) Military Weekend | $2250 |
| (This money to be given for ticket only). | |
| (2) Winter Knights | $2000 |
| (Weekend expenses). | |
| (3) Junior Weekend | $3100 |
| (Weekend expenses). | |
| (4) Senior Weekend | $ 650 |
| (Weekend expenses). | |

As the enrollment increases the money apportioned to the weekends will increase. However, the money allotted to the weekends may increase depending upon class initiative. Such as Junior Weekend and Senior Commencement Weekend.

It is the Committee's wish that the same classes and clubs run these weekends each year. In order that the chairman of the weekends can plan ahead and make arrangements for the approximate number of students will attend the weekend, it is suggested that the student put in his request for a ticket 3 weeks in advance of the weekend and pick up the ticket one week before.

The other money that the Student Council receives from the administration, approximately $4300, will be used for clubs and functions. The Council shall have complete control of the allotment of this money. Any money allotted for weekends out of this $4300 has to be paid back to the Council.

Money for the weekends will not be allotted until the Weekend's budget has been approved by the Student Council.

Three steps are necessary for the fulfillment of this proposal:

- 1). Student Council approval
- 2). A majority of Students' approval at the General Elections in May.
- 3). Approval by the College Authorities.

"What are you doing in my turf, Hood?" The King snarled, flicking ashes off his blue pin-stripe.

"Just a social call," Robin the Hood smiled thinly, "unless it was you who put the heist on Moll Marian?" He pulled his slouch hat low over one cold eye.

The King licked his fat lips. "I ain't seen the dame, honest," he laughed nervously. "Look, why don't you and your boys relax and drink a can of Schaefer with me? They say it's got a smooth round taste—never sharp, never flat."

Fire Truck grabbed an empty Schaefer can from in front of The King and crumpled it with one hand. "You want I should lean on him a little, Boss?"

"Not yet," Robin the Hood said, speaking out of the corner of his mouth. He put his hunting horn to his lips and blew the notes of "What d'ya hear in the best of circles?" From somewhere in the castle a girl's voice answered, "Schaefer all around."

"I get heem now, eh, Boss?" Little Juan hissed. The King made a lightning move for his shoulder cross-bow, but Robin beat him to the draw. "Suppose you bring Moll Marian out?" he said softly.

"Sure, Hood, sure—it was only a little joke."

"Any more jokes like that, King," Robin the Hood said, "and you might find yourself in need of a little castle protection." He watched Fire Truck and Little Juan put Moll Marian and The King's Schaefer in the back of the black limousine, then he got in himself. "Sherwood Forest, boys," he smiled, fingering the knot in his white tie, "and step on it."

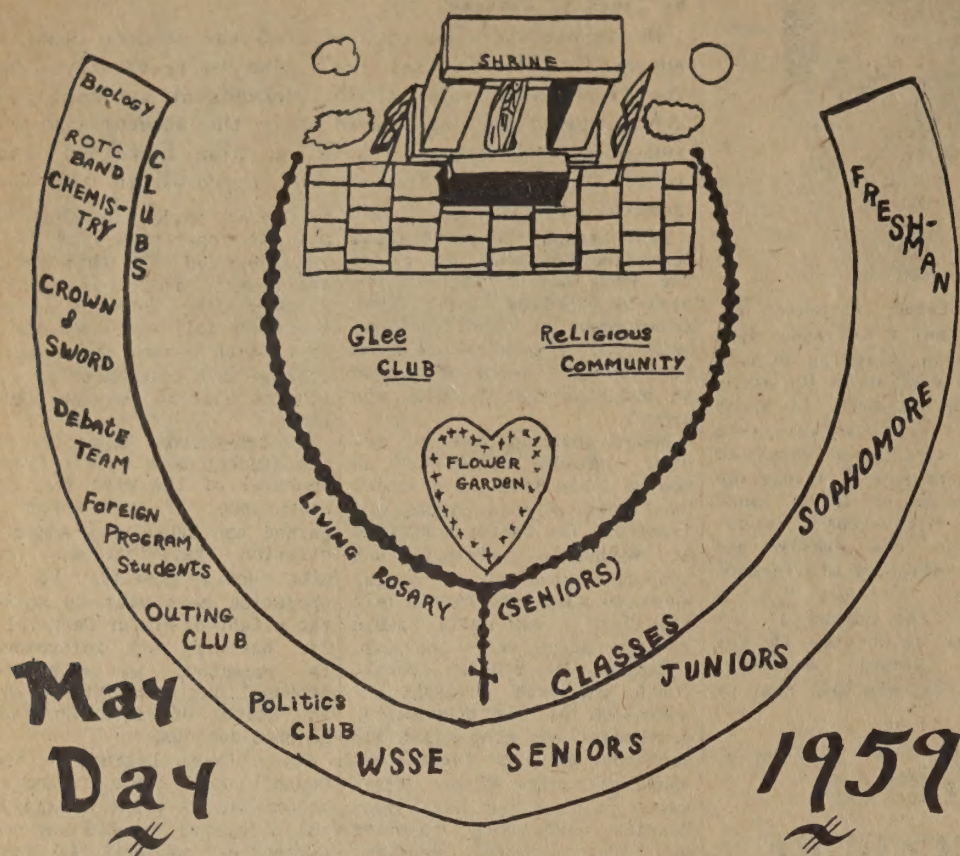

THE F. & M. SCHAEFER BREWING CO., NEW YORK and ALBANY, N. Y.

ELECTION PROCEDURE

1. General elections shall be held in Austin Hall on May 1, 1959 from 10:00-4:00. Elected at that time from the present Freshman, Sophomore and Junior classes shall be a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer. The present Freshman class shall also elect five Student Council delegates; Sophomores and Juniors shall elect four delegates.
2. Organization of candidates shall be by parties. Parties shall submit a petition of nomination signed by 20 classmates other than those making up the party. Said petitions must be submitted to Election Committee Chairman James Canavan (Alumni 114) before midnight, April 26. Candidates running independent of party affiliation must also submit a nomination petition signed by 20 classmates.
3. All candidates must be in good scholastic standing.
4. Nominating convention for all classes shall be held in Science Hall 107 at 7:00 P.M. on Monday, April 27. Parties shall be nominated by non-party members of the respective classes. Qualifications of candidates within a party shall be given by the party Presidential candidate and the party platform, if any.
5. Campaigns shall begin immediately following the nominating convention. Posters may be placed on dormitory and snack bar bulletin boards as well as the outside bulletin boards behind College Hall. "the necessity of knowing at least two if not more foreign languages might, as we say, throw a wet towel on the prospect of international work. However, for those who do have the language background the opportunities are practically unlimited."

The final speaker of the night was Sen. Robert Spencer, Ph.D., associate professor of Political Science at St. Michael's. He outlined the Political Science Course at the college.

"While persons interested in governmental employment need not major in Political Science," said Sen. Spencer, "it would be to his advantage to include it in his electives, as it is a great help for the prospective governmental employee."

mont. Besides the added benefits for the student, it opens the doors for the committee that run the weekend inasmuch as they can plan in advance without fear of "losing their shirts" in the deal. Here is the rub, those who don't attend the weekends can only benefit from the thought that they helped make the weekend a roaring success.

Hugh F. McColl, Class of '61, Troy, N.Y.

The plan, as yet not complete, seems to have the qualities of a solution to a complex problem. The ten dollar "social" security charge forces the students into payment to a pool of resource that limits the scope of our bigger and better weekends. One must reflect on the emphasis given to such times, and relate them to the true touchstone of good times at a reasonable cost.

Tom Whitbread '59, Long Beach, N.Y.

I am wholly in favor of the newly proposed student social fee. This plan will not only provide financial advantages to these weekends, but it will also cause greater participation by the Michaelmen in campus social functions. Also this financial aid will give a solid foundation on which to plan the weekend. Thus in conclusion I would like to emphasize that this plan should be a success for it will benefit all classes in their various activities.

CCD LEADERSHIP COURSE AT SMC

by Roger Plasse

The Confraternity of Christian Doctrine (C.C.D.) will hold its Summer Leadership Courses at St. Michael's College from June 29 to August 7. The courses will be held for C.C.D. Diocesan, Deanery and Parish Directors, Brothers, Priests, Sisters and C.C.D. lay people.

The summer leadership courses will be sponsored by the National Center of the C.C.D., St. Joseph's College on the Rio Grande and St. Michael's College. Two main reasons why St. Michael's was chosen for the summer sessions were that the College has a Doctor of Sacred Theology, Father Geoffrey Keating, S.S.E., and the pleasant climate of the area during the summer. These led to the invitation from the national C.C.D. office.

On the next day a mass will be celebrated, marking the formal opening of the classes. Students are allowed to register for three or more Confraternity courses and each course carries two semester hours of undergraduate credit. Final examinations will be held on August 6 and 7. A.C.C.D. Certificate will be issued jointly by the College and the National Center of the C.C.D. to the students whose average in three of the courses is "C" or above.

The faculty for the summer sessions will include, Rev-Geoffrey Keating, S.S.E., Sister M. Marcelle Theresa Goyette, P.M., and Mother St. Augustine Potvin, R.J.M. The Curriculum will be as follows: Dogmatic and Scriptural Foundation for Catechists, "Apostolate of the C.C.D.," "Methods: Elementary Grades" and "Methods: Junior and Senior High School."

ALL NEW ENGLAND

The Catholic Orders and Parishes throughout the New England area have been notified of the summer sessions and will most likely send representatives. Rooms will be available on campus for all students: priests and teaching Brothers in Ryan Hall and women in Alumni Hall. The facilities of the College Dining Room will be open to all students.

S M C RECEIVES LARGE GIFTS $$

St. Michael's College has received a check for $10,295.92 from the New England Colleges Fund, Inc. It covers gifts from business and industry during the past year.

The allotment is the largest yet received from the federation of 24 independent liberal arts colleges in New England.

Very Rev. Gerald E. Dupont, S.S.E., St. Michael's president, said the money will be used in the development of the college which will start two new buildings this year.

The New England Colleges Fund, Fr. Dupont said, has received more new gifts and more gains than any other similar fund in the United States for the past year. Prospects are also heartening for the present year, he said, because of brighter economic conditions.

GIFTS FROM BUSINESS

A total of $342,816.45 was raised last year by the colleges from New England business and industry. Half the fund is divided equally among the cooperating colleges. The other half is prorated to each college on the percentage of its liberal arts graduates to the total for all 24.

Boston College with $31,636.25 and Dartmouth College with $23,254.38, received the largest sums. Wheaton College with $9,970.25, the smallest.

Several Vermont firms are represented among those who supported independent higher education. They include: The Charitable Foundation of Bryant Chucking Grinder Co., Inc., of Springfield; Durham-Mason Foundation, Inc., Brattleboro; Green Mountain Power Corp., Burlington; Jones and Lamson Foundation, Springfield; Rock of Ages Corp., Barre.

A number of other firms with Vermont outlets also contributed through their national headquarters.

St. Michael's and Middlebury are the Vermont members of the New England Colleges Fund, Inc.

FAUNA CANUM

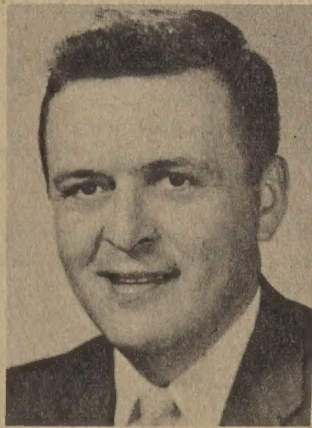

It was announced today by the Junior Weekend Committee that the Dartmouth Sultans will be entertaining the night of the jazz concert and "Tempie" Connors and his group will swing at the afternoon picnic-party.

The Sultans have played at the New York Club circuit, including Cafe Bohemia and the Roundtable, also the Pittsburgh circuit including the well-known jazz spot, Crawford's Grill. Recently the group played Harmony Hall and the Leopard's Club International in Bermuda where they were written up by "Melody Maker", the leading British Jazz Magazine.

The Sultans have played on most of the eastern college campuses including concerts at Middlebury, Cornell, Brown, and the Dartmouth Music Festival. They are planning a European tour this summer, playing mostly at Austrian resorts. The Sultans are made up of trumpet, trombone, sax, drums, piano and electric fender bass. The group will offer a mixture of dixie and modern swing. May 8, "Tempie" Connors was previously with the Sauter-Finnegan Orchestra, Ralph Marterie Orchestra, has recorded with the Four Freshmen, Edie Gorme, Steve Laurence, and has also made two movie shorts in 1947 and 1956.

Connors and his group will be playing at Camp Holy Cross and will swing to any type of music -- dixie, progressive, swing.

DR. LAMAIRE TO TAKE JOB WITH RCA

Dr. Henry P. Lemaire, associate professor of Chemistry at St. Michael's College for nine years, will leave St. Michael's College this year for a position with the Chemical Research Department of Radio Corporation of America in Needham, Mass.

Born in Manitoba, Canada, Dr. Lemaire received his Bachelor of Science and Master of Science degrees from the University of Manitoba. Prior to his arrival at St. Michael's, Dr. Lemaire received his Ph.D. degree at Purdue University.

In 1950, Dr. Lemaire came to the St. Michael's campus as assistant professor of Chemistry and since then has become the associate professor of the Chemistry Department.

During his stay at St. Michael's, Dr. Lemaire has been moderator of the Chemistry Club, accompanying the members on their frequent excursions. He has also served as advisor on the Committee for the Improvement of Science and Mathematics in Vermont Schools and has been a member of the American Chemical Society for several years.

Dr. Lemaire is married and lives at Roland Court in Winooski. He plans to leave for his new position in June.

Bishop Waters to Address Seniors

by Jim Larkin

Most Reverend Vincent S. Waters, D.D., Bishop of Raleigh, North Carolina, will be the baccalaureate speaker for St. Michael's College graduation, June 7, it was announced today by Very Rev. Gerald E. Dupont, S.S.E.

Bishop Waters is both loved and admired in his diocese for his work especially in integrating the churches. It was through his leadership that the Catholic Churches under him were integrated even before the Supreme Court made school integration compulsory. Education of the negro in the south is a problem which he is also trying to solve.

As bishop for approximately 50,000 Catholics spread out over a very large diocese he has sent itinerant trailer chapels and priests to towns not having Catholic churches to preach and say the Mass. The Bishop takes an active part in preaching throughout his diocese and has inspired a very active lay organization which publishes its own diocesan newspaper.

Bishop Waters was born in Roanoke, Virginia, in 1904. He attended Belmont Abbey College, 1920-25, before entering St. Mary's Seminary, 1926-28. After completing school in Italy at North American College he was ordained in 1931.

After serving as Chancellor of the Diocese of Richmond and Director of Diocesan Mission Fathers in Richmond, Va. he was consecrated Bishop of Raleigh, North Carolina in 1945.

Bishop Waters is especially beloved by the Edmundite Fathers who work in his diocese.

BIOLOGY CLUB CHANGES TITLE

by R.E. Pellegrine

At a meeting Thursday, the Saint Michael's College Biology Club voted to change the name of the club to the Saint Michael's College Pre-Medical Society.

At a previous meeting a committee was formed to consider the possibility of changing the name. Upon investigation the committee found that there were more advantages than disadvantages to the proposal and brought these before the members of the club. After some discussion of the proposal, the motion was voted upon and passed.

ADVANTAGES

Listed as the main advantages of becoming a Pre-Medical Society were first of all the added prestige and distinction, evident in other colleges and universities that have taken similar action and also the possibility of becoming recognized nationally. Also mentioned was the fact that the new name will attract speakers of the caliber needed for such an organization.

NOT RESTRICTED

It was strongly emphasized that the organization is open to all pre-medical, pre-dental and natural science majors and any others on campus interested in the bio-medical fields, and that the name does not restrict the organization more than it was previously and possibly broadens its scope.

COMMITTEE

The members of the committee were: senior, Flo Menninger, sophomores, Bob Pellegrine, and Fred Burkle and freshman Jim Harkins.

BRIEF

This afternoon at 2, two United States Representatives, A.L. Carnahan (D-Mo.) and C.E. Merrow (R-N.H.) will present a lecture in Austin Hall. They will talk on, "A Bipartisan Look at Foreign Policy"; both congressmen are members of the Foreign Relations Committee.

These speakers offer the students an excellent opportunity to get a first hand view of the news. What is the purpose and aim of the coming summit meeting? Should Red China be allowed into the United Nations? What is the essence of the Berlin crisis?

Rifle Team Ends Finest Season Yet

BASEBALL SEASON OPENS TUESDAY LINE-UP UNCERTAIN

The starting lineup for the Purple Knights baseball opener against Dartmouth is as yet undecided by Coach Ed Markey with many positions still up for grabs. The game is on Tuesday and will be played at Dartmouth.

Up until the last couple of practices it appeared as though Junior, Pete Griffin, was going to get the nod to start on the mound opening day. However, Griffin has been troubled with a sore arm and it is doubtful whether he'll be ready.

GUILMETTE A POSSIBILITY

It is also very uncertain who will pitch if Griffin doesn't. Guilmette may get the assignment because he's fast but his wing has also been giving him trouble. Tencza has been throwing well in practice and although he is slow, would develop into something when he learns to mix up his pitches.

INFIELD UNDECIDED

The infield is one big question mark as far as starting positions. At third, Bill Kelly is a fielding whiz but Jim Martin has looked good on occasion and has the desire. Zurlo has continued to hit well and will either be at first or in right field. His glove, when playing first base, is not the best but he can hit and Markey insists that he will be in the lineup somewhere.

The final cut was made at the beginning of this week. The roster for the 1959 season appears on this page.

Sgt. Lucas Coaches Squad To Honors In ROTC Championships

St. Michael's College is not a one-sport college. This statement has been explicitly illustrated by the banner performance of M/Sgt. John H. Lucas's ROTC Rifle Team in the recent Air Force and Army Area Rifle Championships.

Dan Mahoney should hold down the first base spot for Ed Markey this season. Mahoney, who in high school made an all-city team, can hit with power and has a good glove at first. Besides being an all round performer he has a knowledge of the game which is unsurpassable.

In the Annual Air Force ROTC Area Rifle Championship, the rifle Knights shot 1835 to place 7 points above Colgate and finish first in the Northeastern competition. Following St. Michael's and Colgate were the University of New Hampshire, Union College, and R.P.I.

NATIONAL STANDINGS

The first place finish in the Northeast Area competition was, however, only good enough for a 22nd place finish in the national standings. Fine shooting by the Univ. of Maryland, Virginia, Polytechnic Inst., and Fordham Univ. saw them finish one, two and three in the country.

AF MEDAL WINNERS

In the Army Area ROTC Inter-collegiate Indoor Smallbore Rifle Championships, the rifle Knights were the only Air Force medal winners in the East. St. Michael's had the highest AFOTC score in a field of 266.

In the Northeast, the Knights placed third behind Norwich Univ. and Northeastern Univ., both of whom are Army ROTC units.

In the Army Championship, SMC bettered both the first and second teams in the prone position by firing 989, one point better than Norwich.

Things look great for the Rifle Team next year as most of the present team is composed of sophomores and juniors. M/Sgt. Lucas promises even a finer year for the rifle Knights in 1959-60.

Members of the team are: David K. O'Mara, Central Valley, N.Y.; Wallace J. Anttil, Berlin, N.H.; Patrick J. Leahy, Montpelier, Vt.; Peter J. Derenzo, Troy, N.Y.; Richard D. Walsh, Belmont, Mass.; Francis A. Fluet, Fitchburg, Mass.; Edmond H. Gervais, Jr., Woonsocket, R.I.; Henry I. Klein, Delmar, N.Y.; Louis E. Tarnowski, Center Rutland, Vt.; Robert B. Dickinson, Bethel Park, Penn.

Kingpin Competition Won By Freshmen

By LASH LEROUX

The Class of '62 clinched the Kingpin league with a decisive 4-0 whitewashing of the Seniors.

Again it was Clancy and Celestino with help from Duncan and O'Donaghue who did the bulwark of the scoring. They rolled 910 series, the highest of the season.

SOPHS SPLIT

The Sophs split with the Juniors 2-2, Bill LeRoux and Bob O'Shea led the Sophs while John Zurlo was high for the match. John started with a 223.

The scoring is:

|--------------|----|
| Class of '62 | 38 |
| '60 | 32 |
| '59 | 30 |
| '61 | 28 |

With only one match left there remained only a fight for second place. The Sophs bowl the Seniors while the Frosh bowl the Juniors.
